

Professional Bio:

Mz. Mugzzi is not another card flipper.

There is more to her and her abilities than what lies within the face of a tarot deck.

See for yourself.

Mz. Mugzzi, also known as Mugzzi or Sam, has been working successfully on the Internet, for over 9 years, as a Psychic Medium.

In the beginning, she started by working an hour a week on her first website known as Live Advice. During the same time she was teaching, part-time, at two community colleges in the disciplines of Business/Marketing and Computers. She was a faculty member for 7 + years. Although her passion was in teaching she felt she had a calling to start operating as a Psychic Advisor on the Internet.

Her popularity grew quickly and the need to teach full-time waned as her clientele, who were looking for authentic, intelligent, medium readings and life coaching skills, grew. As her callers began to line up back to back for insight, Mugzzi's confidence began to grow and the opportunity to start her own psychic website was born. She found the 'Best of the Best' in Psychic Mediums and added them to her site which is known as Predict My Future.com.

While gaining more exposure and creditability, as a Psychic Medium, her gifts have truly bloomed. The opportunity to begin an Internet Talk Radio Show appeared after she filled in for a friend, Robin Zodiac, on CRNi.net. As her call volume began to grow, on the show, she decided to start her own show which can be heard on Sunday mornings from 10:00 am until 11:00 am Pacific time. She has recently been joined by Co-Host, Mark Nelson, to help further promote the Gifts of Mediumship Readings.

In her spare time she is also assisting law enforcement on cold case files. This provides an avenue for continued growth and to give back to our society. She also works with terminally ill patients, if requested, by providing Intuitive Health Readings and is able to help prepare them to cross over.

Currently, Mz. Mugzzi is working on her book, being available as a radio guest and other opportunities as they arise, along with her continuing work as a Psychic Medium. In the future Mugzzi still hopes to work with a script writer in order to get her idea for a TV series available. More will definitely come from this adventurous woman who is striving to bring creditability to the Metaphysical Industry.
